

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SOURCE: U.S. Association of Veterans in Business

Contact: Barbara S. Hilliard (800) 505-1083

CommerceForTheDefenders@USAVETBIZ.org

USAVETBIZ to Present Memberships to Veteran Graduates of Whitman School of Management, Syracuse University

WASHINGTON, DC, July 23, 2007 – The United States Association of Veterans in Business (USAVETBIZ) founder and president Richard Ramirez is slated to speak and present Association memberships to graduates of “The Entrepreneurship Boot Camp for Veterans with Disabilities (EBV)” program at Syracuse University August 19. <http://www.whitman.syr.edu/eee/veterans/index.html>

Known throughout the country for his counsel and assistance to veterans in business, and a lifetime entrepreneur himself, Vietnam veteran, Ramirez, will present as many as thirty-five special memberships to Whitman School of Management graduate veterans who served in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The EBV program was developed and has been administered by the Department of Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises at the Whitman School of Management, Syracuse University. The Burton Blatt Institute: Centers of Innovation on Disability, Syracuse University, has assisted with development of the disability-related aspects of the program, contributing expertise on public policy, disability benefits, accommodations, and other disability-specific aspects.

Created by Veterans for Veterans in business and led by an all-Veteran Board of Directors, USAVETBIZ is a non-profit Trade Membership Association. The mission of USAVETBIZ is to enhance the awareness and opportunities of all Veteran entrepreneurs in the public’s eye and in state and Federal legislative sectors. More information on USAVETBIZ is available at www.USAVETBIZ.org.

###